

Devon v Dorset, Kilmington CC, 28th June

In spite of a century for skipper Ian Hayter, Devon lost to Dorset at the lovely Kilmington CC.

Winning the toss, Devon made first use of the track, and openers Hayter and Brian Cann put on a solid 132 before Cann was out for 48 off 79 balls faced. This brought in Jeff Heath who stayed til the last ball of the innings for 65 off 55 balls with 11 fours.

Hayter's 114 off 110 balls included five 6s and 10 x 4s, and when he was out the score became 209-2, but then Dorset's bowlers found a tight line and length to keep the final total down to 275.

After tea the visitors came out all guns blazing, all eight bowlers had a go but no one had an answer. A wicket each for Munday, Harris, Cooke and Cann did little to stem the flow of runs as Dorset passed Devon's total with five overs to spare.

Devon 275-4 (Hayter 114, Heath 65, Cann 48)
Dorset 278-4
